Broward Community Schools: A Place Where Students Succeed

Northeast High Community School

GED IS A FAMILY AFFAIR

All Adult & Community Schools in Broward County have GED graduates but in Charlie Dortch's GED classroom at Northeast Community School, earning a GED has truly become a family affair.

Marguerite L. Alvarado is the proud mother of Christine L. Alvarado. Marguerite entered the program first and after receiving her diploma she encouraged her daughter, Christine to attend and she quickly earned her diploma as well. Currently, both mother and daughter are attending college together and doing well.

Another special pair is sister and brother, Anissa J. Amer and Andrew S. Amer. Anissa being the older sister earned her diploma first and then encouraged her brother Andrew to attend. Happily, both sister and brother earned their diplomas and both are now enrolled in college and doing exceptionally well.

Class Acts

Ft. Lauderdale Community School employs former students!

Five former students at Fort Lauderdale are progressing in their goals as they have successfully completed adult education classes and are now gainfully employed. These five individuals are now employed by the Broward County Public Schools. Talk about Workforce Development!

Diana Armstrong, hails from Colombia, and is a clerk in the office. Pilar Pou, came from Argentina and is the school's registrar. Iwona Kizanczuk, from Poland, is now one of our ESOL teachers.

Regina Santiago from Brazil, works with Family Literacy.

Siomara Loschiavo honors us by volunteering in our adult education classes.

These ladies came to realize their dream in the land of opportunity, freedom, and acceptance, and have become our shining stars.
